Story starter!

It was the greatest match the world had ever seen! The boy's colossal legs waded through the water, sending shockwaves through the city engulfed in shadow. With a loud grunt, the enormous child lunged towards the sun, ready to take the shot...

Can you continue the story of the giant tennis match?

Sentence challenge!

A parenthesis is a word or a phrase put into a sentence to give it more information.

Sometimes a parenthesis is in italics, sometimes it is in (brackets), sometimes there is a dash – and sometimes it has 'inverted commas' around it.

Parentheses are used to:

- Explain what a difficult word means.
- Show someone's thoughts
- Add extra information to help the reader
- Emphasise a point

Can you use brackets to add extra information?
E.g. The ball (which was actually the sun) shot across the Question time!

Who do you think the boy is playing tennis with?
How do you think the boy has grown so large?
Where did he come from?
